"Just the right balance between information download, applied techniques and opportunities to share ideas with colleagues."

"The mix of rigorous learning, participation and relaxation worked extremely well for me. The presenters were flexible...and allowed for discussion, input and tangents."

"Being an executive director is often a lonely business. I return home from these sessions refreshed, energized and full of ideas. Also, the mix of sessions and social time is wonderful."

"There was obviously a clear effort to provide plenty of time for us to apply the tools and concepts we learned at our own organization."

"An absolute gift. The RGK staff is brilliant, encouraging and empowering....Program met us where we are and gave us wings."

"Thank you so much! The survey you conducted must have given you exactly what we needed! You hit on challenges we had faced and helped with tools we can take home and really use."

"Part of my learning...has been observing and listening to how peers present and describe their work. I have learned a great deal about myself and what I do and some of the patterns and behaviors I have developed. It has been fascinating for me and massively enriching to understand new systems and approaches."

"RGK has made an eternal investment in the sustainability of our organization. Goal overwhelmingly accomplished."
